REMARKS

On the evening of 03/15/16, I, Officer Ortiz along with Sgt. Mazzotta and Officer Ward responded to a house in Middletown, Ct on a reported domestic disturbance.

On arrival, we located Norman Scott Bendolph Sr., the victim and the witness in the hallway of their residence. Scott appeared highly intoxicated as he was speaking with Witness said that Scott is "drunk" and belligerent, cursing and yelling in the apartment because he gets jealous when victim is seen with a male. Witness said that Scott was so upset that he threw a partially filled can of beer over the head of victim and it struck the wall, which caused the beer to splatter all over the victim's hair and clothing. I noticed that the victim's hair and clothing were partially soiled and smelled of beer. Witness said that he had to step in front of Scott because it appeared to him that he was advancing toward the victim. Victim was not cooperative and stated that she did not want to get Scott arrested. There were no reported injuries. There are no court orders on file.

Scott was taken into custody without incident. Scott admitted that he had several alcoholic beverages after getting off of work this evening.

I later learned that Officers Terrible and Lemieux had made contact with victim and Scott about an hour earlier outside near their home after witnessing a verbal argument between the two. There was no probable for an arrested as both left the scene in opposite directions.

Scott was processed on the charge of disorderly conduct, 53a-182 and held on $10,000 surety bond. Scott will be presented to G.A. 9 on the morning of 03/16/16.

Cased closed by arrest.
